Blue and Gray Pay Homage to Lee

Equestrian Figure Unveiled at Stone Mountain, Georgia—First of Central Group to Form Largest Carving in History.

Atlanta, Ga., April 9 (AP).—Those who followed him and those who followed him across the hills today pay homage to Robert E. Lee.

Thirty-three years after Appomattox, the ranks of blue and gray were lined up in waning numbers, were lined up in this fresh expression of the equestrian figure of the southern commander-in-chief, the first unit of the colossal memorial to the Confederacy being carved on the granite side of Stone Mountain. Here to participate in the impressive ceremonies attendant on formal dedication of the gigantic monument.

The largest written history of man—were civil and military dignitaries from north and south, including a host of leading Congressional leaders from Washington, the governors of three states and official representatives of twenty more.

Walker Accepts For Nation.

To Mayor James J. Walker of New York, fell the honor of accepting the monument on behalf of the nation; Marcus W. Beck, justice of the Georgia supreme court, performed a similar function for the south.

In the tiny hands of five-year-old Robert Edward Lee IV, great grandson of the gray leader, was the responsibility of loosening the folds of fabric that hung about the equestrian sculpture and disclosing it to the eyes of the assembled multitude.

Largest Carving in History.

The equestrian figure is the first of a central group which will form the largest carving in history. Standing out in bas-relief on the steep precipice, which is more than 400 feet high, the Lee carving from the top of the general's head to the hoofs of "Traveller," his horse, measures 130 feet. From the tips of the horse's ears to the end of its tail the distance is 175 feet. The carving virtually would cover the side of a building a city block in length and nine stories high.

Compared With Sphinx.

Those who have made comparisons between the figure and other famous works of art, have estimated that the Sphinx of Egypt could be placed on Traveller's neck and that the Lion of Lucerne in Switzerland would not be visible from the ground with the naked eye should it be placed in the crotch of the general's elbow.

In order to place this gigantic bas-relief on the mountain side it was necessary to construct special scaffolding of steel rods imbedded into the solid granite of the precipice, a long stairway was constructed from the ground while special lowering devices were installed from above. Stone cutters literally flitted with death in placing the machinery on the mountain, and shops have been installed on different levels with small shacks for shelter and keeping quarters when necessary.

Visible For Many Miles.

When completed the memorial will be visible for many miles, since Stone Mountain, said to be the largest outcropping of solid granite in the world, stands out as the high point of the section, although there are some smaller mountains.

Notable among the eastern military units taking part in the ritual were the Governor's Foot Guards of New Haven, Conn.

A detachment of the Old Guard of New York, acting as escort for Mayor Walker, and details from the Massachusetts Veterans of Petersburg, N. H., and the Fifth Maryland Regiment of Baltimore.

A parade through downtown Atlanta this morning gave official impetus to the program, after interlarded a trip by special train to Stone Mountain, 16 miles away, for the exercises which were timed to begin their impressive course at 2 p. m. under the chairmanship of Hollins Randolph, president of the Stone Mountain Memorial Association.

The Rev. Gibbs B. Cook, of Matthews, Va., last survivor of General Lee's staff, expected to deliver the benediction but could not attend and his place was taken by the Rev. Walter Rogers of Atlanta.

GREEN SUPERVISORS ENSURE NEW HIGHWAY

The board of supervisors of Greene county has appropriated $150,000 as the county's share in the building of the state and federal aid Cairo-Greenville highway and $12,740 for the rebuilding or repair of five bridges along the route.

4 Men Knocked Down by Ford Car

They Had Parked Car at Curb and Were Walking Across Street When Hit—Two Were Picked Up Unconscious—All Four Treated at City Hospital.

Saturday evening about 9 o'clock George Parslow, Jr., of 145 Clifton avenue, parked his automobile on upper Broadway and he and his three friends, who were with him in the car, started to walk across the street to the fish market on the opposite side. While about in the center of the trolley tracks all four were struck and knocked down by a Ford car owned and driven by John Rennie of Ulster Park. The four men were taken to the City of Kingston Hospital where their wounds were dressed. The three others with Parslow were Robert Brazee of 45 Gill street, William Walk of Green Island and John C. Braun of Rensselaer. Walk and Brazee were picked up unconscious.

Later Parslow placed Rennie under arrest charging him with reckless driving, and Rennie gave bail for his appearance in police court today. This morning when the case came up for a hearing before Judge A. H. Van Buren it was stated that Parslow desired to withdraw the charge if Rennie would pay the doctor's bills of those injured, which he agreed to do.

The charge was withdrawn and Rennie discharged. Rennie in reporting the accident to the police said that he was not driving over twelve miles an hour and did not see the four men until it was too late to stop his car.

Wedded Pair on Return Find Fire

While Mr. and Mrs. Edison F. Wood Were Returning to Home on Plank Road After Being United in Marriage They Found Fire Department Fighting Fire.

Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock Mrs. Annie F. Day and Edison F. Wood of this city were united in marriage at the parsonage of the First Dutch Church by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Lucas Boeve. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wood left on a short auto trip returning to the Day residence on Plank Road about 7 o'clock that evening to find the Kingston Fire Department busy at work fighting a fire that had broken out in an outbuilding while they were in Kingston.

Under the direction of Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy the fire fighters kept the fire confined to the outbuilding, and saved the house from destruction.

The fire, which was of unknown origin, was first discovered by neighbors who promptly telephoned in a call for assistance to the Central Fire Station. The outbuilding was in flames when the fire department arrived and it was found impossible to save it from destruction. The firemen then turned their attention to the house nearby and by the use of chemicals and water managed to save it from catching fire.

New Bedford Mills Cut Wages 10%

New Bedford, Mass., April 9 (AP).—A ten per cent wage cut, effective April 16 and affecting 27 cotton mills of this city, was announced today by the New Bedford Cotton Manufacturers' Association.

This brings the scale in New Bedford to a level 89.52 per cent above the pre-war scale, and makes it equal to the rate prevailing up to June, 1919. About 30,000 operatives in the fine goods mills of New Bedford will be affected by the change and it is expected to cause an immediate reduction of slightly more than $50,000 a week in the wage total paid out by the mills each week.

Dr. Loughran to Be Health Officer

The regular monthly meeting of the board of health will be held Tuesday evening at the rooms in the Central Fire Station at which time it is understood that the board will elect Dr. E. H. Loughran of Main street health officer to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Daniel Connelly. Since the death of Dr. Connelly, Dr. Joseph Jacobson, a member of the health board, has been acting as health officer. Dr. Loughran is widely known throughout the city and county and his appointment as health officer will meet with general approval.

CAR REPORTED STOLEN IS RECOVERED HERE

Saturday evening the local police department received a telephone call from the Saugerties police department asking that a Hudson roadster owned by Joseph Adamo of Coeymans be located as it was reported stolen. Sunday afternoon Motor Officer Soper discovered the car which was being driven by Josephine Coby of Coeymans and escorted the woman and the car to police headquarters where later the woman and the car were turned over to Chief Richter of the Saugerties police department.

Stock Market on New Rampage

First Hour's Trading Nearly 1,000,000 Shares—Ticker Half Hour Behind Market Before Noon—Early Gains $2 to $8 a Share.

New York, April 9 (AP).—The stock market started on another bull rampage today under the leadership of the railroad, copper, motor, public utility and merchandising issues. Early gains ran from $2 to $8 a share. So great was the volume of trading that the ticker fell a half hour behind the market before noon, with the first hour's trading close to 1,000,000 shares.

Speculative attention was focused on the shares which exert the greatest effect on sentiment, particularly General Motors, which drew further away from Radio, ruling about 19 points higher than its recent competitor in market leadership. Extensive absorption of the merger railroads raised a number of them to considerably higher levels. Pittsburgh & West Virginia Crossing, 160, Brisk bidding for Brooklyn Edison lifted it 8 points to 252. While the coppers, Curtiss Avro and Schulte added extensively to their earlier rise. The renewal rate for call loans was advanced from 5 to 5 1/4 per cent.

Pittsburgh & West Virginia, climbing more than $5 a share, to a new high record at $160.37 1/2, was the leader of the railroad group. Lehigh Valley, Delaware & Hudson, Western Maryland common, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Kansas City Southern and Gulf, Mobile & Northern advanced $2.50 or more, the first three to new peak prices.

Brooklyn Edison, soaring $8 a share to a new high record at $252, led a sharp upward movement in the utilities. New York traction was heavily bought on expectations that the federal court would authorize an increased fare.

Coppers moved forward under the leadership of Anaconda, American Smelting and Greer Cananea, all of which advanced $4 a share or more on buying influenced by reports of improved trade conditions.

U. S. Cast Iron Pipe was the sensational individual performer, soaring $40.25 a share, to a new high record at $300, as compared with a low of $190.12 1/2 earlier in the year. The stock jumped from $271 to $300 on six transactions involving only 1,100 shares.

More than two score issues reached new high levels for the year, or longer before the end of the third hour. The list included Anaconda Copper, American Bank Note, Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit, Coca Cola, Fairbanks Morse, Gillette Safety Razor, Greene Cananea Copper, National Dairy Products, Park and Tilford, Schulte Retail Store, Skelly Oil and Standard Oil of California.

"MILLION DOLLAR KIDNAP RING" HAS BEEN BROKEN

Chicago, April 9 (AP).—The "Million Dollar Kidnap Ring" which police say attended on ransoms in Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, has been broken. Seven persons are under arrest on kidnaping charges, and detective squads, armed with machine guns and tear gas, are searching northern Illinois for another person—the leader.

Thomas Gaylor, automobile dealer and part owner of the new McCormick Hotel, whose abduction led to the seven arrests Saturday, spent "as happy an Easter as one could wish for" yesterday, following a week's imprisonment while his abductors were seeking to collect $10,000 ransom for his release.

GARAGE ON DEWITT ST. DESTROYED BY FIRE

Saturday afternoon an alarm of fire from Box 35, called the fire department to DeWitt street in Wilbur where a fire had broken out in a garage owned by Mrs. William Dougherty. The fire in the garage was beyond control when the firemen arrived and they directed their efforts to saving the house which was blistered by the heat.

Two grass fires also called out the firemen Saturday afternoon. One was on Theresa's Lane, off Hasbrouck avenue, and the other on the property of Mrs. W. D. Brinner, Sr., on Delaware avenue.

Cold Weather Halts Floods in Northern Sections

Heavy Rains Over the Week End Cause Serious Trouble in Northern New York, Vermont, New Hampshire and Two Canadian Provinces—Blizzard at Malone.

New York, April 9 (AP).—Cold weather today halted Easter day floods in northern New York, Vermont, New Hampshire and two Canadian provinces—Blizzard at Malone.

High temperatures, which had melted snow and started the ice down the rivers, and heavy rains over the week-end had sent many streams out of their banks, distributing rail traffic over communicating systems.

Two men were killed when the raging Chaudiere river swept their wagon off a bridge near St. Lambert, Que., and two members of a Canadian National Railway passenger train were believed drowned when the engine and baggage car of the train, en route to Montreal from Quebec, dropped through a bridge at Drummondville, Que.

The disastrous floods of last year were recalled in Vermont with several temporary bridges erected last summer, carried away. Many of the highways near Burlington were reported almost impassable. The Connecticut river at one time was 11 feet above normal and the Passumpsic river had washed out rails at Lyndonville, delaying the Montreal-Boston Express on the Canadian Pacific Railway fifteen hours. Overflow from the Connecticut had cut off train service into Colebrook, N. H.

Several streets in Watertown, N. Y., were under water as the Black river rose to within four inches of flood level. Melting snow in the woods north of the city were blamed for the sudden rise. Several mills were closed Saturday when their power wheels were unable to function.

Ice floes from Lake Erie were swept into the Niagara river near Buffalo, endangering small craft and causing the water to back up. A strong north wind was credited with restraining the water and preventing the ice floes from doing serious damage.

River Rising at Watertown

Watertown, N. Y., April 9 (AP).—Falling temperature failed to check the rising water in the Black river today.

Huntington street and Water street, in the northeastern section of this city, were flooded to a depth of two feet. Both thoroughfares are parallel with the river.

The high water crippled the power plant in ten or twelve factories between here and Carthage, causing suspension of operations.

New York Central train service between this city and Carthage was rerouted by way of Philadelphia in consequence of flood menace to a railway bridge three miles south of Carthage.

The flats between Lowville and Carthage were flooded and railway trucks were under water. While no real damage had been caused in Carthage, the waters were approaching houses near the river. Streets in the village of Dexter, south of here, were under water.

Heavy rains, which added to the volume of water in the streams, also raised havoc with some of the highways. The main state highway from Watertown to Syracuse was blocked on account of two big motor trucks becoming mired and preventing the passage of other vehicles.

Blizzard at Malone

Malone, N. Y., April 9 (AP).—A blizzard which raged for two and a half hours brought Easter Sunday to a close in northern New York last night. Today the streets in this village were covered with a coating of ice and snow, and the thermometer registered 26 degrees above zero.

Murdock Saved By Inhalater

Thomas Street Man Found Overcome by Illuminating Gas in His Home—Firemen Use Proper Method and Inhalater With Success.

Early Sunday evening the police department received a call from 4 Thomas street stating that Harold Murdock had been overcome with illuminating gas. Policeman Simon Wood hurried over to the Central Fire Station and Firemen LeTour and Mains with the fire department inhalater rushed to the scene and worked over Murdock for twenty minutes before he had been sufficiently revived to be removed in the ambulance to the Benedictine Hospital.

Murdock had been found unconscious on a couch in a small room in his apartment with the room filled with illuminating gas from a wall jet. It is supposed that he had fallen asleep and in some manner not explained the gas had been blown out. When found the room was filled with gas.

Dr. H. L. Van Nostrand, who had also been called, took charge of the case and when Murdock had been sufficiently revived had him removed to the hospital where the firemen remained with the inhalater in case it should be needed until the physician informed them that their services were no longer needed.

In addition to using the inhalater the firemen used the proper method of resuscitation and undoubtedly it was through their work that the man was saved.

The inhalater in charge of men from the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Company was also called to the house but their services were not needed.

Murdock, who is 25 years old, is married and the father of two children. He is employed as a powder maker at the Brewster plant near Port Ewen.

At the hospital this morning it was stated that Murdock's condition was somewhat improved.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY INCREASES SALARIES

New York, April 9 (AP).—Columbia University has announced sweeping advances in salaries of teachers and administrative officers in keeping with its policy of protesting "the dignity and freedom of the academic career."

The new schedule, as made public by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of the university, calls for a minimum salary of $7,500 a year for full professors instead of the present salary of $6,000; a minimum salary of $5,000 for associate professors in place of $4,500; and a minimum of $3,600 for assistant professors instead of $2,400. In addition there will be salaries of $9,000, $10,000, $12,000 to which individual full professors of exceptional service or distinction may advance, and salaries of $6,000 in the same class open to associate professors.

TWO INCENDIARY FIRES AT UTICA WITHIN AN HOUR

Utica, N. Y., April 9 (AP).—Two fires, both said by firemen to have been of incendiary origin, broke out in the eastern part of this city within an hour today, and did damage estimated at $15,000.

The bakery of Salvatore Digiacomo took fire while the owner, with his wife and five children, were asleep in an apartment on the second floor. The family escaped with the aid of firemen. Damage was estimated at $6,000 by fire authorities. Business jealousy was suggested as a motive for the setting of the fire, which firemen said was plainly incendiary.

Fire did damage estimated at $9,000 to the Aeroplane Restaurant. Neighbors said the fire was preceded by an explosion.

Frane Martin, a fireman, was injured when he fell from a fire engine on the way to the restaurant fire.

Subkoff Moves Again

Brussels, Belgium, April 9 (AP).—Alexander Subkoff, youthful Russian emigre who was expelled from Germany after a series of escapades, is on the move again. He left Vienna yesterday for Luxembourg, where his wife, the Princess Victoria of Schaumburg-Lippe, is expected to join him shortly.

First Dividend Since 1896

New York, April 9 (AP).—The Long Island Railroad, almost all of the stock of which is owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad, declared its first dividend today since 1896, a payment of 1 per cent.

Meredith, "Dry," To Fight Smith

Democratic County Conventions in Iowa Elect Delegates To State Convention Overwhelmingly for Smith, But Meredith Will Continue Fight for National Delegates.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 9 (AP).—Iowa's 26 votes in the National Democratic Convention at Houston will not be surrendered by supporters of Edwin T. Meredith, of Des Moines, without a fight, despite the fact that sentiment developed in county conventions Saturday was very strongly in favor of Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Supporters of Meredith declared they would contest in the state convention here April 29 to gain the declaration for their "dry-progressive" candidate, over the Empire State executive whose "wet" leanings brought the former secretary of agriculture into the contest.

The battle is contemplated in the face of returns from county conventions showing that Smith gained nearly two hundred delegates in the state convention, against less than a hundred for Meredith, and that Smith's strength in virtual control of the state convention through sufficient instructed and favorable delegates, to gain delegates from six of the state's 11 Congressional districts. About 500 delegates are un-instructed; 81 are contested and the remainder of the 1,332 delegates are yet to be named or reported.

Fly to Gold Fields And Stake Claims

Detroit, April 9 (AP).—Commander Richard Byrd's South Pole plane has made its first trip of discovery, carrying Burnt Balchen and Floyd Bennett, pilots, to the gold fields at Reindeer Lake, Manitoba. Two pilots of the proposed Byrd Polar Expedition told the story of their arrival last night after ten days' test flying in the Canadian province.

While an army of prospectors was held up at Le Pas, awaiting the spring thaws before attempting the 15 days' "mush" into the gold country, Bennett said, he, Balchen and a group of men associated with the Canadian Western Airways, took off from Le Pas and completed the trip in less than three hours. The party staked 31 claims.

"Every member of our party, including the cook and his helper, staked claims," Bennett said. "One of our claims was next to one that staked for $20,000 while we were there."

Bennett said he was unable to give an estimate as to the value of the claims at this time, other than the conclusion to be drawn from the price obtained for the neighboring claim.

Very Pleasant Easter Sunday

Bright sunlight and strong breezes on Easter Sunday seemed to cheer the many churchgoers, who took advantage of the nice weather to walk to church instead of using their auto-mobiles.

The churches in the city reported very large attendances at all the services, which were made more beautiful by the special musical programs, appropriate of the occasion.

There was an appreciable drop in the temperature in the afternoon and there were but few seen walking on Broadway. Although the procession was small there were many smart and stylish fashions worn, which attracted the attention and admiration of all.

Jail Negroes For Begging

This morning the police department received complaints from merchants along Broadway that five negroes were busy going from store to store begging food. Officer Bowser was sent out in the police car and rounded up five negroes who gave their names as Harry Parker, Thomas Kane, David Daniels, Charles White and John Williams.

Later in police court the five were arraigned before Judge A. H. Van Buren and pleaded guilty to soliciting food. They said they were without funds and hungry and for that reason had begged food.

They were each sentenced to five days in the county jail, and warned by the court that it would be safer for them to shake the dust of the city from their feet at the expiration of their terms in jail.

Selecting Jury To Try Sinclair

Court Questions Them Under Plan Recently Adopted in District of Columbia—Judge Declines to Submit Some Questions Submitted by Defense.

Washington, April 9 (AP).—Full expression of confidence of an acquittal, Harry F. Sinclair came jauntily to the District of Columbia supreme court today to face once more the charges that he conspired with Albert H. Fall to defraud the government in the Teapot Dome case.

Sinclair, who was accompanied to court by his wife and mother, faced trial alone this time, the case against Fall having been postponed because of the former interior secretary's ill health. His attorneys, however, will draw heavily on the deposition given by Fall recently at El Paso, in an effort to free their client.

The oil man arrived in court just before Justice Jennings Bailey mounted the bench and took a seat beside his counsel, Martin W. Littleton, George P. Hoover, Daniel Thew Wright, R. M. Rankland and G. T. Stanford. The government was represented by Owen J. Roberts, and Alton Ponzere, special prosecutors, and District Attorney Rover.

The first move was a motion by the defense to be permitted to question the veniremen instead of having the court do it under the plan recently adopted in this jurisdiction. The defense argued that for the court to question the veniremen deprived the defense of its right of determining the jurors' fitness to serve. Each side had ten peremptory challenges at its disposal in picking the jury.

The first twelve prospective jurors ordered into the box for examination included two women, Mrs. Alma C. De Hart, and Miss Margaret Shockey. Edward Tilton, John E. Ulrich, and Delbert F. Bailey said they had read about the case, Tilton said he had formed an opinion and did not believe he could lay it aside. Ulrich said he had formed an opinion. Tilton and Ulrich then were challenged for cause and excused.

C. Wendell Shoemaker, a bank cashier, said he had formed an opinion and was challenged for cause and excused. Hoover objected to the court examining the panel and the court over-ruled him but Justice Bailey permitted him to state his ground for the objection.

Justice Bailey declined to submit to the panel some of the questions, handed him by the defense counsel. It was developed that none of those in the box knew Fall or Sinclair.

Thomas F. Keane was excused for cause after he said he had formed an opinion on the case. Thomas J. Keefe, a real estate salesman, was similarly excused. Benjamin R. Thomas, a carpenter, was removed from the box on a peremptory challenge by the government.

REPORT PRIEST AND TWO COMPANIONS EXECUTED

Mexico City, April 9 (AP).—Dispatches from Guadalajara today said that a Catholic priest, Alhina Corderas, and two unnamed companions, who had been held as prisoners at the military barracks in Sayula for some time, have been court-martialed and executed.

General Avila Camacho reported to the military commandant that a group of insurgents attacked Sayula Saturday and Corderas and his two companions escaped during the fighting. They were later recaptured and the court martial sentenced them to death.

The government continued its roundup of insurgents in the states of Jalisco and Guanajuato as thousands of worshippers celebrated Easter in the Roman Catholic Churches of the capital without the aid of priests.

Eleven persons, including Francisco Aguilera, a priest, were arrested at Irapuato on charges of plotting a revolution against the government. Military authorities said that the prisoners were implicated in a similar affair in February but were pardoned when they promised to cease such activities.

SEVERAL AUTO CRASHES WERE REPORTED IN CITY

Over the week end several automobile crashes were reported to the police department. Saturday afternoon there was a collision between the cars of Ethel Arnold of 145 Abernethy street and Herbert J. Haines of 55 Hoffman street on Hasbrouck avenue. The same day the cars of E. A. Kilmer of 137 Abernethy street and William Reichey of 137 Abernethy street near Pine Grove avenue.

Anna K. Brack of Lake Katrine reported that while driving out of the parking grounds up near her car collided with that of Mrs. Maria Haezle of 15 Tietjen avenue.

Make Sure Roads Are Not Closed

Spring is the season of new road construction and many reports in all parts of the country and the motorist who is faced with the possibility of being stranded by a closed road should make certain that the roads over which he expects to pass are not temporarily closed. This warning is issued by Benjamin E. Kind, secretary of the Automobile Club of Ulster county.

"Spring truly is a season of doubt, but it also is a season of doubt," says Mr. Kind. "The weather is so variable that the motorist must be prepared to face any emergency. It is better to be prepared for the worst than to be caught out."

"It is impossible to take issue with state or county highway officials over this condition. Their task is to put the roads into shape as quickly and effectively as possible in anticipation of the long period of exceptionally heavy motor travel which will begin within a few weeks. Invariably, they must make the most of the first days of Spring for this important work."

"Therefore, the individual motorist must check up on the roads before setting forth on his trip. To make this easier and certain, this club and others of the 1928 comprising the American Automobile Association maintain efficient machinery for collecting vital road data. This is available to the motorist at all times and serves him effectively whether the trip he contemplates is one requiring but a few hours or many days. It is a service which

GREEN SEAL INDICATES

SALES ARE CORRECT

A green seal placed on a scale is an indication that the scales have been tested and found to be correct. The scales are used by the Bureau of Weights and Measures of the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Commerce to insure the accuracy of the scales used by the public.

Commissioner Horne A. Pyke of the Department stated that cooperation of the public in the matter of the enforcement of the weights and measures law is of great assistance to the department. He pointed out that the law states that commodities are to be offered for sale by net weight, standard measure or numerical count, and when commodities are placed in containers a plain statement of the net contents is required.

"We find there is a practice of ordering an indefinite amount, such as a box, basket, bottle, jar or jug without asking what such box, basket, jar or jug contains. Persons often ask for fifteen cents worth of some commodity without asking the price per pound, and also buy a 'box' of candy without looking at the top or side to see if the box is properly marked as to its net content."

"It is also found that hucksters or peddlers ask if you desire to purchase a 'nice basket' of apples or potatoes, giving the price and not stating how many quarts the basket contains. A huckster offering his wares in this manner should be asked how many quarts the basket contains. As there are many different sizes of baskets, some being taken as 25 quarts which are really 24 or 27 quarts baskets. Baskets that are not of the standard size should be marked with the number of quarts.

"Before purchasing gasoline at a filling station it would be well for the automobilist to see whether the pump has been tested and sealed. If it has been sealed there will be a tag or seal attached to the pump."

"The most recent addition to our law is the regulation relative to the sale of firewood by the cord. The law states that a cord of wood shall consist of a pile of well stacked wood 4 feet long, 4 feet wide and 4 feet high and shall be sold by the cord or fractional part thereof."

"Through the law relative to coal, bread, crates for celery and lettuce, and the net content of containers law the department is able to afford much protection to the consuming public."

Chance to See Treasure Island.
The choir and acolytes of St. John's Church are hoping that all of their friends, especially among the grown-ups are as crazy over Robert Louis Stevenson's "Treasure Island" which he counted his first novel, as they all are. They know the story so well that they are going "to act it out" in pantomime at the parish house on Thursday evening, and the proceeds will be used for their summer camp this coming vacation. But the lads have asked The Freeman to ask its readers, who have read "Treasure Island," to brush up their memories of the thriller and those who have not read it to do so, in order that they may get the most thrills and fun out of the pantomime when they see the travesty at the parish house on Thursday evening.

Attempt Cutting Drug Addict's Supply at Source

THE United States emphatically rebuffed the League of Nations in formally announcing an independent program for international action to curb traffic in opium and other narcotics.

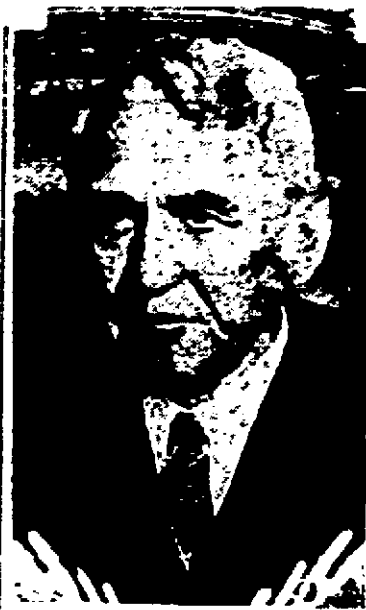

Coming on the eve of the eleventh session of the league's advisory committee on opium, Secretary of State Kellogg's announcement constitutes a sensational step in the world war against dangerous drugs.

Kellogg's program was outlined in a letter to Senator Smoot of Utah, chairman of the Senate finance committee. It reaffirms American allegiance to the aims of The Hague opium convention of 1923 and chides the league committee for its repeated failure to approve a drastic program.

Recalling that the league committee sessions at Geneva in 1924 and 1925 took no effective steps toward realization of The Hague aims, Kellogg declared that, largely as a matter of self-defense against smuggling operations, the United States has undertaken to set up a worldwide system of co-operative espionage against illicit drug shipments.

The movement was secretly initiated last December, agreements already have been concluded with Great Britain, France and Germany, and the question is under negotiation with fourteen other nations, including Japan, Turkey, Belgium, Switzerland and Jugoslavia.

Kellogg interprets The Hague aims to be that use of coca derivatives shall be rigidly restricted to medical and scientific purposes. He recalled that the American delegation to the 1925 Geneva conference withdrew because it was "forced to the conclusion" that the project there being framed did not conform to this ideal.

(International Newsweek)

In order to prevent the abuse of these products, it is necessary to exercise control over the production of raw opium in such a manner that there will be no surplus available for non-medical and non-scientific purposes.

Kellogg's new undertaking is to arrange for the "direct exchange of information" between world capitals "relating to persons and organizations engaged in the illicit international traffic." Such exchanges would be between the various existing organizations set up for the control of the domestic traffic.

The move is inspired by increasing evidence of growing smuggling operations to the United States, as detected by treasury officials in the enforcement of the Harrison anti-narcotic act.

FIRST EASTER SERVICE IN NEW ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

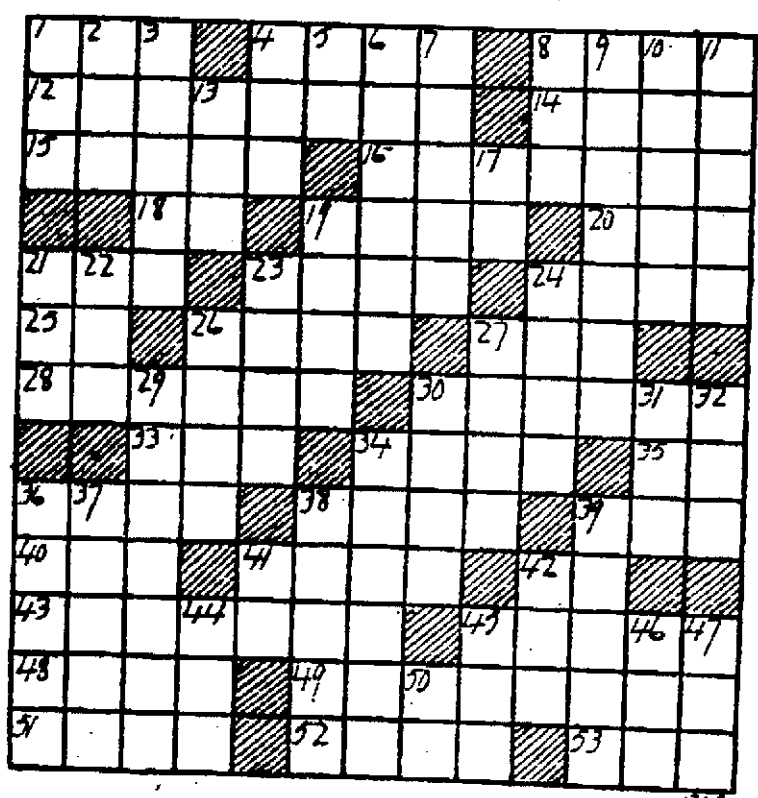

The first Easter services held in the rebuilt St. John's Episcopal Church were the five services of Easter Day, 1928, as they were the first Easter services since the new, but now much-loved rector, the Rev. Poyntell Kemper, has been with the parish. All of the services—Easter Eucharist at 8 a. m., with vested choir; Easter Eucharist at 9 a. m., plain; full festival Eucharist, with sermon at 10:45 a. m., church school choral service with mite-box Easter offering; sacred oratorio, "The Daughter of Jairus," rendered by the vested choir, directed by Robert Williams, organist, were very largely attended and were rarely devotional and inspiring in dignity and sincerity of worship; power of sermon, and beauty of music, especially the oratorio. And never has the chancel of St. John's Church been made more beautiful with Easter flowers, than it was this year, by Miss Ida Kerr and members of the Altar Guild, the Easter flowers being memorials.

Whether the knock of opportunity is a boost depends on the individual.

Poison Liquor Killed Actress

Boston, April 9 (AP).—Alcoholic poisoning caused the death of Hazel Pearson, 25 year old West Roxbury actress, who was stricken while on a automobile ride with a girl companion and three Massachusetts Institute of Technology students Saturday. District Attorney William J. Fisher was informed today. Fisher received the report of an autopsy made by the medical examiner of Norfolk county. The girl died in Dedham, but the liquor which she had been drinking before her death was obtained in this city. Albert Pearson, who was said to have sold the liquor, and Antonio Brando, from whom Pearson said he obtained it, were held by police. The dead girl, who had obtained a divorce from Wilmer W. Rodiah, secretary of the Northampton Chamber of Commerce, became violently ill after drinking the liquor and died before her companions could take her to a hospital.

An analysis of a sample of the liquor which the party had been drinking and was disclosed "an unusual amount of poison," a state chemist by whom the analysis was made reported today. Brando and Pearson were arraigned in the Roxbury court today charged with keeping and exposing liquor for sale. They pleaded not guilty. Pearson was held in $1,000 and Brando in $500 bail for a hearing.

Egg Rolling at The White House

Washington, April 9 (AP).—Despite a chilly, overcast day, Washington children began early today to take advantage of the hospitality always offered them on Easter Monday for the annual egg rolling on the White House lawn.

From the number of children which entered the Executive grounds as soon as the gates were open and the rate at which their numbers increased as the morning wore on, White House attaches judged that the traditional festivity had lost none of its fascination for Washington's youngsters.

Much of the charm of the occasion, however, was lost this year by the absence of Mrs. Coolidge. The sickness of her mother at Northampton, Mass., was responsible for her absence, and the children who on previous years had been accustomed to being fondled by the First Lady of the Land were disappointed this time.

Court Upholds "Dry" Padlock

Washington, April 9 (AP).—The right to padlock in prohibition cases, even after the premises have been hidden of the offending tenants, was upheld today by the supreme court in a case from Detroit.

The ruling was made in a case where a butcher who occupied the place was found to possess a still in the garage at the rear. Upon prosecution he was ousted, but the trial court issued a padlock injunction against the garage, holding that the seizure was likely to continue.

Wave Damages Liner Leviathan

New York, April 9 (AP).—The United States Liner Leviathan arrived today with many damages caused by an immense wave Thursday night which wrecked a searchlight on the foremast 85 feet above the water line. Four lifeboats were smashed and about twenty third class passengers were drowned by water pouring through a broken ventilator.

NOVELTY DANCE WEDNESDAY AT ST. ANN'S, SAWKILL

A spring novelty dance will be held at St. Ann's Hall, Sawkill, Wednesday night, April 11. There will be balloons, confetti and streamers to feature the event which is one of the outstanding social affairs of Sawkill each year. The post-lenten activity at St. Ann's Parish is largely attended always, not alone by residents of the community where it is held but by Kingstonians who enjoy a good time. The great number of Kingston people who patronized the dance in the past will be augmented by many friends, it is expected, whom they have invited to share the enjoyment. Refreshments will be sold at the hall.

Exports to Europe Show Increase

Washington, April 9 (AP).—American exports to Europe showed a substantial increase during February. Commerce Department figures today giving the comparison of foreign trade by divisions of the world showed that the increased demand in Europe for American goods was more than sufficient to offset declines in other parts of the world.

English imports from the United States for February were $65,924,123 against $70,461,219 last year, and imports from England were $25,899,312 against $28,693,481.

From Germany in February the United States took imports of $19,144,582 against $13,245,144, while exports to the same country for the same period were $37,424,206 against $28,761,740.

Exports to France were $15,701,369 against $13,587,425 while imports from France were $13,913,950 against $14,195,340.

JOHNSTON PROMOTES WOODSTOCK ARTISTS

Along with achievements in the art world of Woodstock artists and literary productions by members of the colony, comes the Latterday Pamphlets, edited and printed by Paul Johnston, the first Spring number having arrived at Woodstock.

The Latterday pamphlet series is the outcome of literary and art material gathered from members of the Woodstock group. The first one is by William Murrell, literary critic. The second pamphlet will be two poems and a drawing by Peggy Bacon. Future pamphlets have been announced with work by Boardman Robinson, Edwin Seaver, Jules Pasch, F. Gardner Clough and Kaj Klitgaard. Mr. Johnston was one of the editors of the Hue and Cry, when it was first published at Woodstock. The series is being printed from 20 Minetta Court, New York city.

"FAIRY GODMOTHER" OF FRENCH VILLAGE DIES

Holyoke, Mass., April 9 (AP).—Miss Belle Skinner, of Holyoke, known as the "Fairy Godmother of the Village of Hattontchattel" because of her work in rebuilding that French community into a model village after the war, died in Paris early today. She was about 60 years old.

Miss Skinner was a graduate of Vassar College and a daughter of William Skinner, pioneer silk manufacturer of this city. She left Holyoke for Europe two weeks ago, and according to word received by her brother, Joseph Skinner, contracted a cold on the voyage which developed into double pneumonia.

She received a decoration from the French government in 1921 and on September 15, 1923, was made a member of the Legion of Honor in recognition of her reconstruction work.

GOV. SMITH TO START ON VACATION THURSDAY

New York, April 9 (AP).—Governor Smith announced today that he would leave New York Thursday afternoon for Asheville, N. C., "solely for a vacation."

"I'm not going to talk politics while I'm away—with anybody," the governor said. Who will be his party has not yet been determined, he said, although none of his family will accompany him.

He said he does not know whether he will visit any other part of the south. He will be gone less than a month.

PENNINGTON RECEIVES DE MOLAY DEGREE.

Jeffries Pennington of Ulster Park has received word from the Grand Council, Order of DeMolay, which met at St. Louis, Mo., March 19, that he has been elected to receive the Legion of Honor Degree, which is the highest honor a DeMolay can have bestowed upon him.

Last year there were three young men from this state who received this honor and Kingston had one of these young men. Harry M. Barnhardt, a past master counselor of the local chapter, receiving the degree, the first time it was conferred in this part of the state.

This year there will be but 17 young men in the country to receive this honor and young Pennington is to be congratulated upon having qualified for such a high honor. The Kingston Chapter of DeMolay should also be proud, having had two of their number receive this degree in two successive years. The Knights Templar are also proud to be backing such a movement that has young men of such character in the membership.

REPORT PRIEST AND TWO COMPANIONS EXECUTED.

Mexico City, April 9 (AP).—Dispatches from Guadalajara today said that a Catholic priest, Albino Corderas, and two unarmed companions who had been held as prisoners at the military barracks in Sayula for some time, have been court martialled and executed.

General Avila Camacho reported to the military commandant that a group of insurgents attacked Sayula Saturday and Corderas and his two companions escaped during the fighting. They were later recaptured and the court martial sentenced them to death.

Kantowitz Supplied Coats.

D. Kantowitz, the uptown clothier, has outfitted the Paramount Entertainers, one of Kingston's well known ballroom orchestras, in new collegian blazer coats. These are expected to be worn in great numbers this year and Mr. Kantowitz has a great stock on hand to meet the demand. The Paramount Entertainers made a very pleasing appearance at the Jewish Community Center in their outfits.

MUDDY WATER SPOILS FISHING NEAR PHOENICIA.

Many fishermen who visited their favorite spot on the Esopus creek near Phoenicia Sunday were disappointed to find the water muddy and approaching the consistency of thin pea soup. The water from the Glendon dam had been turned into the Esopus and trout fishing was an unpleasant sport. Several who sought out more favorable waters, however, came home with excellent catches for the opening day. The high wind of Sunday kept many from going and the big drop in temperature and wind spoiled the fishing today in other sections of the Catskills.

Schwartz vs. Parra.

New York, April 9 (AP).—Jazy Schwartz acknowledged world's flyweight champion in this state, will defend his title against Roulter Parra, South American challenger, in a fifteen-round bout at the St. Nicholas Arena tonight. Schwartz is the favorite and in the event of victory over Parra, he plans to close negotiations for a clash with Frankie Genaro, flyweight king of the National Boxing Association.

Preparing Eastern Grapes for Market

"Preparation of Eastern Grapes for Market" is the title of a new bulletin issued by the United States Department of Agriculture which discusses the harvesting, packing, and handling methods employed with success by commercial growers in the various producing sections.

Types of field trays, picking benches, packing tables and containers are described in detail. Proper methods of picking the grapes, packing into baskets, and loading cars are also discussed. This bulletin contains many illustrations covering the various operations from the field to loading the grapes into cars. Attention is called to the fact that the enormous expansion of the grape industry, particularly in California, has resulted in such keen competition in the marketing of juice grapes that many growers of eastern grapes are turning with renewed interest to the greater development of the table stock trade.

The bulletin points out that eastern grapes formerly sold for table stock have been largely diverted from that market. The greater ease in meeting the comparatively low packing requirements for juice stock has reacted unfavorably upon general packing and handling practices, with the result that comparatively few growers have been attempting to meet the demands of the fancy table grape trade. Rough handling of this highly perishable crop causes crushed and bruised berries which soon become moldy and decayed, especially in warm weather.

It is also pointed out that the development of the table stock trade depends upon the grower putting up a good quality pack. Good quality fruit is often spoiled by careless handling practices. Careful handling of this commodity must begin in the field and be continued through the various operations of packing, hauling, and loading into the cars for shipment.

Copies of this publication, Farmers' Bulletin No. 1558-F, may be secured free of charge, upon application to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

SPRING FEVER.

Lazy in April? The charge is unjust! But the bookshelf is yearning for darkness and dust.

And the clock that was once so sedate and so slow in a new, brisker rhyme is singing, "Let's go!"

Lazy in April? I long for the trail Through the woods, or the field where deer lights never fade.

Where the travel is long ere you dine or you sup. Lazy in April? I'm just waking up!

A grass widow is a woman who has lost her illusions and misplaced her husband.

Still is not all their name implies.

The proprietor of the bath house at the beach had a somewhat gentler way of breaking bad news. He sent the following letter to the wife of one of his patrons: "Mrs. Curtis: Your husband's bathing suit was washed out to sea this morning, and it will probably be impossible to recover it. P. S. Your husband was inside it."

Coy Spring.

It's Fun to Wash With Hot Water!

It used to take bribery, threats or coaxing to get junior to wash his face and hands "and behind the ears", when he bounded in, grimy and dirty from playing ball or marbles. But hot water on tap at every hour of the day makes it fun for the children instead of a disagreeable task. Lots of soap and plenty of hot water banish the cry of "water's too cold."

With a gas storage water heater, hot water is always ready for every purpose. Stored up in an insulated tank it flows forth in generous quantities at the turn of the faucet.

SNOW TRAPS FIVE TWO CHILDREN DIE IN MOTHER'S ARMS

Loss Way in Blizzard and Spend Night in Sight of Shelter.

KINGSTON, N. Y.—Within sight of shelter but unable to reach it because of the blizzard, two little girls died in their mother's arms. The mother herself was unconscious when she died and two other children, although suffering greatly, are expected to recover.

The four children of Gilbert Dunn, a farmer near Chateaugay, had gone to school as usual in the morning. But as the blizzard rose to a fury she had never seen before, Mrs. Dunn decided to keep them home.

She hitched a pair of horses to a sled and started for the school, but half a mile away realized she could not hold the horses to the road. She struggled on a little further to the home of a neighbor. He took the sled and after a hard fight against the blizzard got back to his house with the children.

Start for Home.

The four youngsters—Ina, Lena, Freya and Gilbert, Jr.—were numb with cold, but after they were thawed out before the neighbor's fire Mrs. Dunn said she would start for home.

Huddled Together Against the Blizzard.

The neighbor protested. The snow was driving so fast before the gale that it stung like hail, the horses were tired, the road could hardly be seen.

It was only a mile, though, and Mrs. Dunn insisted. All four children crowded close to her on the unprotected sled, and for a little way the horses pulled heavily. But Mrs. Dunn could not keep them on the road; soon they were plunging and rearing in drifts above their bellies, and at last they quit, exhausted. No amount of leading could urge them on.

Another farmhouse was just visible through the swirling snow, and Mrs. Dunn tried to reach it on foot. She stumbled and fell a few yards from the sled and just managed to crawl back to her children.

Find Two Dead. Huddled together against the blizzard, the five numbly watched the snow pile higher and higher around them. Long before morning it had covered them completely, and the father, searching for them until late at night, could have passed close without seeing them.

In the morning Dunn aided by two neighbors, renewed the search. The blizzard had partly subsided, and after several hours the farmer found his family. He had to dig them out of the snow, and when they reached the nearest house Ina and Lena were dead. Freya's feet were so badly frozen that they may have to be amputated. Mrs. Dunn was in a serious condition and only Gilbert will suffer no permanent injury.

Admirals Entertain Old Tars at Tea Party

Portsmouth, England.—The battleship Nelson was the scene of a tea party which has written a new chapter to British naval social history.

English newspapers say it is the first time two admirals invited the crew of ordinary rank to such a function.

The hosts were Vice Admiral Sir Hubert Brand, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, and Admiral Sir Osmond de B. Brock, commander-in-chief of the Portsmouth command.

The guests were both men and of rank, without distinction of rank, who served in the steam frigate Raleigh during the commission from 1865 to 1887.

Both Sir Hubert and Sir Osmond were midshipmen of the watch together in the Raleigh. Their idea in giving the tea was to provide a reunion of the men who served together 40 years ago. The Sir Hubert offered his flagship as the most fitting place for the event.

Grief Is Fatal. Washington.—Dot is dead of a mysterious disease. Her mate Hibby died away several months ago. Perhaps it was grief in Dot's case. Dot and Hibby, giraffes, were brought from Africa to the zoo.

Without a Doubt. When one reads in the paper that Mrs. Sofia Ivanoff and Miss Gabrielle de Montmorency are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, one knows that a couple of movie girls are here for the holidays.—Arkansas Gazette.

Luke Glennon Hotel Manager

Luke Glennon, former resident here and brother of Cecilia Glenn, Mrs. John Finn and Frank Glennon of this city, is the new manager of the Chamberlain-Vanderbilt Hotel at One Mount Comfort, Va. The new hotel was opened Saturday evening and marked one of the most notable events in a decade in this section of the coast. About six hundred guests were present, and the dinner was served in the grand dining hall.

Mr. Glennon has held many responsible positions in hotels throughout the United States and his many friends here will be pleased to learn of his latest achievement.

Under the management of Mr. Glennon the hotel is expected to be a social and financial success.

Athletes of former days will remember Mr. Glennon as a ballplayer of great ability, who played with teams throughout this section.

ACTIVITIES AT RONDOUT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The annual meeting and banquet of the Rondout Presbyterian Church will be held on Thursday evening in the chapel of the church. The banquet will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Following the banquet the congregation will elect three trustees in the place of A. S. Staples, W. L. Hutton and F. D. Dewey, whose terms of office expire.

Next Sunday the vespers services will be discontinued and regular evening services held in the church commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Ellis, pastor of the church, will give a stereopticon sermon on "Picturesque India."

Original "Loring Cup"

The custom of the Loring cup is traced back to the days of wassailing. It was discontinued after the introduction of Christianity. The monks called the wassail bowl the "potion cup" or "Loring cup." The ceremony of drinking from one cup at passing it around was observed in the Loring family at supper.

Industrials to Start May 7

Men interested in the Industrial Baseball League meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Thursday, March 29, to organize for the season of 1928.

The following industries were represented:

Applon Machine Corp., C. Glasser, Hercules Powder Co., M. D. Lane, Shapira & Rubin, Charles Hicks, Central Hudson Gas & Elec. Corp., M. Bales, Columbia Shirt Co., T. Dugan, Schilling Furniture Co., Steve Daddik, Post Office City, H. Johnson.

A. Warren was elected president, J. S. Coo, vice president, John H. Harrison, secretary, E. G. Banks, treasurer, Pete Jordan, umpire.

It was voted that games would start on May 7.

Mr. Warren was to call on the West Shore and the U. & D. R. R. to see if they would enter teams in the league.

The meeting adjourned until April 12, at which time each team was to have money ready to turn over to the treasurer.

1928 constitution of Kingston Industrial Baseball League.

ARTICLE 1.

Name and Object.

Section I. This organization shall be known as the Kingston Industrial Baseball League.

Section II. Its object shall be to promote athletic competition between the industries within the city of Kingston, N. Y., and to foster and develop sportsmanship and the spirit of honesty and fair play therein.

ARTICLE 2.

Membership.

Section I. The membership of the League shall be composed of teams representing industries situated within the city of Kingston.

Section II. The membership and playing roster of a team shall be bona fide employees of the industries they represent except in special cases which must be voted on by the Board of Managers and carried by a majority vote of the Board of Managers.

Section III. Seven members of the Board of Managers shall constitute a quorum at all meetings.

Section IV. In case of a layoff for lack of work, a player may continue playing with the team on which he first started, if he so desires. If he should enter the employ of a firm having a team in the League, he can play with that team after submitting himself to the two week rule.

Section V. No employee of a firm shall play in the League games until he shall have been on the payroll for at least two full weeks.

Section VI. All questions concerning the eligibility of players shall be settled by the chief executive of the industry they represent.

ARTICLE 3.

Officers and Their Duties.

Section I. The officers shall be president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

Section II. Such officers shall have all duties and responsibilities pertaining to their office and such others as may be prescribed.

Section III. The officers shall be chosen by vote from the managers of teams represented in the League.

ARTICLE 4.

Governing Board and Meetings.

Section I. The Governing Board shall consist of president, vice president and secretary and one member of each team. All members of the Board of Governors shall have a vote except the president, who will vote only in case of tie.

Section II. Meetings shall be called at such time and place as the president shall deem advisable or at the demand of six members of the Governing Board.

ARTICLE 5.

Fees.

Section I. Upon presentation of their playing roster, each team shall pay to the treasurer of the league the sum of twenty dollars ($20.00) as a deposit of good faith.

Section II. Any team protesting a game must accompany their protest with a fee of two dollars ($2.00). Said fee will be returned if the protest is upheld by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE 6.

Protests.

Section I. Any team desiring to enter a protest against any member or team in the league, must do so in writing and place the same in the hands of the secretary of the governing board.

Section II. All protests in connection with a game must be made within forty-eight (48) hours after the game and must be accompanied by the fee as set forth in Article 5, Section 2.

ARTICLE 7.

By-Laws.

Rule 1.—The Spaulding Official Baseball Rules shall be the playing rules of the League.

Rule 2.—Seven innings shall constitute the official game.

Rule 3.—Games will be played on the Athletic Field and Haverbrook Park.

Rule 4.—Games shall be scheduled at 6:00 p. m. and any team not having at least eight men on the field at 6:15 p. m. shall automatically forfeit the game. In case of a forfeit on the field the players of either team refusing to play an exhibition game shall automatically forfeit the right of their team to collect their deposit of good faith at the end of the season.

Rule 5.—The ninth man entering a game after its beginning shall take his place in the batting order after the eighth man.

Rule 6.—The official umpire shall be appointed by the Governing

Hahn Will Go To Europe Early

New York, April 2 (AP).—Lloyd Hahn, one of America's middle distance runners, not only will go to Europe in advance of the main Olympic contingent but will be accompanied by his coach, Jack Ryder, and given full travel in connection with himself for the International Games at Amsterdam.

No official decision has yet been reached on Hahn's plans. None will be until Ryder and Lawson Robertson, the Olympic head coach, get together in Philadelphia later this month, but it can be said with authority that Hahn will have the full support of the Olympic organization in any special plan of Olympic preparation.

The probability is that the great Nebraska and his coach will be advised to go to France, where the climate is more nearly like that of America, instead of to either England or Holland for advance training. They probably will embark at least two or three weeks before the main body of athletes sails on July 12.

Some opposition has been voiced to showing any favoritism or granting any special dispensation to Hahn, but the idea of those guiding the Olympic program is expressed in this fashion by one in authority:

"Why shouldn't Hahn have every advantage we can give him? He is far and away the greatest American middle distance star since Mel Sheppard or Ted Meredith. For the first time in twenty years Hahn gives America a chance to come through in the 800 and 1,500 meter runs at Amsterdam. He will be up against probably the greatest field that has ever been assembled for these events."

"Lloyd will be up against Peltzer, Nurmi, Wide, Martin of France, Douglas Lowe and other stars, all of whom will have the advantage of preparation at home, with only a short jump to Amsterdam for the big tests. Under these circumstances, it seems only ordinary fairness to permit Hahn to make his own arrangements, go over as early as he likes and get himself in shape under the direction of his own coach."

Thus Ryder will shoulder a one-man job, the first time any Olympic coach has been handed such an unusual responsibility.

Ran Conger, the slim Iowa star who beat Hahn in one indoor race last winter, also will train for both the Olympic 800 and 1,500 meter races but more with the idea of concentrating on whichever he is better equipped for.

"I have asked Conger to prepare for both features," says Larson Robertson, head coach, "even if he isn't able to reach the finals in both he will have the advantage of the preliminary competition as well as the chance to size up his opposition."

"The way the Olympic program shapes up, the 800 meter men will run the first three days of the week and the 1,500 meter performers the last two. If we decided to point Conger for the 1,500 there would be no better way for him to whip himself into condition than by actual racing competition in the 800."

CHANDLERS DOWNED

KERHONKSON, 40-16.

The Chandlers defeated the Kerhonkson High School basketball team, 40-16, at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night. The winners held a 19-10 advantage at the end of the first half. The Chandlers will play one more game this season, which will be with the Red Shields on a date not yet decided upon.

Fight to Win

Dr. Jack Wilcox, football coach of the Ohio State university, speaking to the football and basketball squads of Mount Union college, stressed the importance of playing to win. "Show a fighting spirit controlled by the rules of the game," he urged. "There is dynamite in sport," Wilcox declared, "dynamite which can blast gold or destroy castles and anyone who has attended contests where people gather feel the dynamic power of sports."

Board. In the absence of the official umpire, the two managers may decide upon an umpire for that game.

Rule 7.—The official scorer is the one furnished by the Governing Board.

Rule 8.—Postponed games shall be played on dates fixed by the President of the League.

Rule 9.—The choice of innings shall be decided by the toss of a coin.

Rule 10.—In the case of rain or darkness, four innings shall constitute an official game. The calling of all games shall be left to the judgment of the umpire, the managers of the teams playing are to secure from the umpire his ruling not later than 5 p. m. of the date set.

Rule 11.—An official baseball shall be used for all League games and the new ball shall be furnished by the manager of each team for use in each game.

White Sox Paid Record Price for Cissell, Rookie Fielder

THE Des Moines club of the Western League paid the United States army just $85 for the discharge of Chalmers W. Cissell from the Fourth cavalry two years ago. A few months later Des Moines sold the release of this young man to the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league for $12,000 and it has cost the Chicago White Sox $125,000 to buy his release from Portland. This is believed to be the record price paid for a player.

The actual cash paid was only $75,000, but Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, was forced to include four players in the deal. One was Pitcher Bert Cole, who cost Chicago $35,000 a year ago. Another was Outfielder Ike Boone, who cost the Sox $75,000 in 1927.

"Bill" Cissell seems to have had the baseball germ in him since a mere boy. In fact, he scarcely can remember when he did not play. He is just twenty-four years of age.

Then he moved to St. Louis where he started to learn the trade of a candy maker. He paused outside of a United States recruiting station one day to give the gaudy posters illustrating what for it was to be a bold soldier boy a look and, upon impulse, enlisted in the cavalry.

Stationed at Jefferson barracks, St. Louis, he later was transferred to the Second cavalry at Fort Riley, Kansas, and still later he was assigned to Fort Des Moines, located near Des Moines, Iowa. He divided his time between playing baseball and becoming an expert in breaking and trapping horses. In fact, he showed such aptitude with the fractious steeds that he was promoted to the rank of corporal and detailed to training recruits.

It was as a ballplayer, however, that he attracted the attention of the Des Moines Western league club, which obtained his discharge from the army when his enlistment had two years to go. He was used as utility infielder for a few weeks and then was installed as the regular shortstop, leading the Western league short fielders in averages and hitting .245. On the strength of that showing Portland club bought him for $13,000.

Sport Notes

Indiana university golf team has scheduled ten meets, April 25 to May 24.

Ty Cobb, reported worth $2,000,000, is surely the wealthiest player in modern times.

The starting gate now used almost universally in horse racing originated in Australia.

The ban against women betting at the race tracks in Victoria, Australia, has been removed by legislative act.

Margaret Jenkins, of California, is champion with the javelin and baseball, both of which she throws like a man.

Eric Lambart, last year's captain and stroke of Columbia's crew has returned to the varsity boat load for the first time since his illness.

The Boston Red Sox have acquired a semipro named Charles Lajesse, who is expected to understudy Phil Todd at first base this coming season.

Eighty per cent of the students of the Colorado School of Mines are now taking part in an extensive physical training and interclass sports program.

A well-known professional says in an ad that a certain brand of cigarettes soothes his throat and enables him at all times to talk his best game of golf.

Owner Stoneham of the New York Giants once owned Billy Barton, leading candidate for the Grand National steeplechase at Aintree, but sold the horse for $2,000.

Uzdun and Godfrey met in an elimination bout on the coast, but from the reports it looks as though they were both eliminated from further consideration.

Joe Bratcher, now with the Oakland club in the Pacific league, broke into professional baseball in 1921 and since then has been a member of eight pennant-winning teams.

Walcott Lanford, Chicago middleweight, claims the distinction of being the shortest 150-pounder in the boxing game. He stands 5 feet 4 inches in his ring shoes.

John Plombo, boxing coach at Florida university, was for years match maker at Montgomery. The first time he billed Young Strubling the latter received a guarantee of $35.

Polo is said to have originated in Persia two thousand years ago and was played in China and India long before cavalry officers brought the game to England after being garrisoned in the Orient.

George Herman Ruth, who is informed by a member of the Sport-Slang-Haters' association, harassed by superstitious emboupoint, takes up his caoutchouc raiment and trends southwardly in quest of the divine figure.

Classes in golf instruction are to be a part of the regular physical training work for girls in the University of Texas. Instructions will be given in driving, putting and general tactics of playing.

In a special event at the Intercollegiate meet at the One Hundred Second regiment armory, Hahn set a new world's record for the half-mile, tearing off the 800 in 1:51 2-5. Cornell won the meet.

First Use of Parachute

The invention of the parachute is accredited to Sebastian Lemoraund and the device was used by him in 1784 in making a descent from an upper window from a house, in Lyon. The first descent from a balloon was made by Garnerin in Paris in 1797.

Hollywood Athletes Are Rapped by Coach Rockne

The "he-man" school of America is the agriculture college, in the opinion of Knute Rockne, who took the opportunity to rap the "Hollywood athletes," who, he said, are becoming numerous in eastern colleges. He was addressing the Iowa State college.

"These mezzanine floor hurdlers," said the Notre Dame football coach, "infest hotel lobbies. They are soft and perfumed and boast raccoon coats and enlarged hip pockets. They don't exercise, for to perspire is vulgar. They haven't much pep in the daytime but at night they become very active."

"If I had my way I'd take a boy like that and make him a fullback. Then I would have the quarterback call his signal right over the center where opposition is generally more stubborn. He might not choose to run, but I don't see how he could help it—and contact would do him good."

Rockne expressed the opinion that leaders of 20 years from now will come from agricultural communities "because virility of city men is deteriorating."

After Olympic Honors

Once again Bob McAllister, the flying cop of New York, is blazing the trail to Olympic honors which he hopes to gain in the forthcoming trials. McAllister, again on his best, is giving every spare moment to training for the sprints and is confident of attaining the form which brought him fame in the athletic world a short time back.

Yale Will Stick to Tad Jones' Football System

The Tad Jones brand of football will be played by Yale next fall, but it will not be superconservative. Marvin A. Stevens, newly chosen head coach, said in his first formal outline of his plans as successor to Tad Jones.

The new coach defended the Jones football policy of conservatism, said the present game is "all right," has nothing wrong in it and predicted that Yale will have a "tough time physically and psychologically" next fall.

"Next fall the Yale team will play the same as Mr. Jones taught it," said Mr. Stevens. "The teams which are expected to give Eli the hardest tussles are Georgia, Army, Dartmouth, Princeton and Harvard, because each will come 'set' to win. For this reason I expect it will be hard for Yale to win all its games. I rather think Yale faces as hard a task as any football team in the country."

Polar Temperatures

The fact that it is colder at the South pole than it is at the North pole has been explained by the fact that the South pole is believed to lie in the middle of a large continent and also at a higher elevation than the North Geographical pole. This would account for a lower temperature.

Seven National Clubs Have Hope

New York, April 2 (AP).—National League baseball hopes, rising like sap in the spring, cover more territory this year than has been the case in recent seasons. Seven clubs sit up and cringe interest at the mere mention of the championship.

Only 10 points separated the first and third place clubs last year and the training period has left no suggestion that the race this year will be any less contested.

The first division clubs of last season, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, New York and Chicago have undergone working changes during the 100-day month. The Pirates and Cubs claim added strength through an exchange of talent, the Cardinals expect to be most formidable on account of improved physical condition of several stars and the Giants have replaced one of the team's greatest hitters with a youngster, who will play second base where Hornsby formerly worked in 1927.

The addition of Hazen Cuyler to Chicago's outfield has converted Joe McCarthy's outer trio into one of the strongest in the game and at the same time, "Sparky" Adams is credited with having "made" the Pittsburgh infield. St. Louis saw O'Farrell, Thompson, Blades and Rhum in much better shape to give their best efforts.

The Giants present a problem. Hornsby has gone to Boston and Grimes to Pittsburgh. Andy Cohen has been given the second base assignment and must sink or swim around it. The other assets are Frank Horan, a promising young catcher, Frank O'Doul, a hard hitting outfielder and several brilliant young pitchers, Bill Walker, a Denver lefthander, leading the list.

Three clubs who were in the second division hope for better things and even vision a pennant at the end of the season. Cincinnati has lost Pete Donohue, an able pitcher, but a return to winning form of Adolfo Luque, the Cuban star, has encouraged Jack Hendricks and his aides. The Reds thing George Kelly, much improved in health, will do some fancy first basing and hitting.

Boston's Braves, bolstered by Hornsby at second and Lester Bell at third, expect to display more punch. The Braves have picked up in Eddie Brandt, a lefthanded pitcher who seems to have the goods.

Brooklyn has drawn on Boston for Dave Bancroft, who can still play shortstop and hit, and Cincinnati has contributed Ruben Broderick to the outfield. Hendricks and Hornsby, former first basemen, have been converted into outfielders and the minor leagues have sent Bissonette, Riconda and Freiman to lend a hand in the infield with Tyson in the outfield.

The Phillies must undergo a period of reconstruction before they can challenge their fellows. A good start was made in getting Bill Kelley for first base, Arthur Whitney at third and Bill Deitrick, outfielder.

PAUMONOK STARTS RACING PROGRAM

Three-Year-Old Feature to Be Run at Jamaica Track.

The Paumonok handicap will take in the racing season of 1928, at the Jamaica track on Monday, April 23. It is for three-year-olds and upward over the springing course of six furlongs. It has fifty-eight entries and speed is represented in such horses as Happy Arzo, Draconia, Old Dutch, Donnez Mol, Black Carl, Ariel, One Hour, Kentucky Second, Distraction, Flit, Polydor, Victoria, Sweetener, Jubo, Foundation Stone, Ramoner, Sarmatius, Poly, Nautanum, Propus, Pennant Queen and Filemaker.

Happy Arzo was the champion sprinter of 1927. He will unquestionably be assigned top weight.

But weight, in reason, will not stop the Irish horse if he is at the top of his form—and he usually is good in the spring. He is a fine weight carrier and anything like 120 or 130 pounds will not anchor him provided the track is dry and fast. He objects to racing in a sloppy or muddy track. He is poor in soft going.

Sweepster, Sarmatius, Draconia, Old Dutch, Donnez Mol and Nautanum probably will be in the second division. Old Dutch hung up a five and a half furlong track record at Jamaica last fall. That shows that he likes the course. Draconia, one of the fastest juveniles two seasons back, but lame for a long period, is in training again. He too showed well at Jamaica as a two-year-old.

In the long history of the Paumonok handicap, which had its inaugural in 1906, it has furnished some stirring equine battles. When Tryster won in 1922 four horses finished like the fingers of your hand, an inch or two only separating each of the quarter.

In the list of winners one can find Red River, which won it two years in succession, in 1907-08; Restigouche, Coquette, Flags, Dunborne, On Watch, Zev, St. James, Worthmore and Silver Fox.

Michigan Sprinter

F. F. Alderman of Michigan State. is one of the outstanding stars prominently mentioned for the Olympic team this year. He steps off the 100-yard dash easily under 10 flat and the 220 in a fraction over 21 seconds with little difficulty.

Coach Knute Rockne to Watch Olympic Games

Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football coach, has signed a contract chartering a boat from the Cunard S. S. line to head a tour to the 1928 Olympic games at Amsterdam.

To devote himself to the continental tour Rockne will give up all his summer coaching schools this year. The revenue from this source in past summers has netted him an average of $15,000 each summer.

While the Rockne tour will be primarily to the Olympic games, six other countries will be visited. Present plans call for visits to England, Holland, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and Belgium.

The trip will require six weeks.

Orwell Most Grateful

Since Days of Lajoie

Ossie Orwell, who came to the Philadelphia Athletics from Milwaukee, is the most grateful player to make the big league since Harry Lajoie hung up his spikes. In the opinion of Manager Connie Mack.

This statement came from the lanky pilot of the A's. In speed, grace and natural ability, Mack said the blond athlete was living up to all the advance notices that preceded him out of the West and that if he was not one of the sensations of the coming American league he would be surprised.

Mack has not decided whether he will use him as a pitcher or fielder.

Blacklists Cats And Certain Birds

Department of Conservation Seeks Help of Sportsmen in Extirpating Injurious Birds and Animals Which are Injurious to Domestic Cat Industries.

Albany, N. Y., April 9 (AP).—A bulletin a day keeps the vermin down.

That is the slogan coined by Herbert P. Prescott, secretary of the New York State Department of Conservation in an attempt to enlist the support of the sportsmen of New York state in a war on birds and animals which are destructive to the game and song birds of the state.

The department of conservation maintains a "black list" of these vermin—the outlaws of the animal kingdom—against which every hunter is entitled to turn his gun at all seasons. On this list are the common crow, cooper's hawk, gosawk, sharp-shinned hawk, weasel, squirrel, great horned owl, red fox, and the ordinary domestic cat.
Although the last included only when it is caught hunting.

On the "white list" of birds which are under conservation, are five species of game birds, and care must be taken by sportsmen in identifying the particular species of hawk before classifying it as an outlaw. The friendly hawk which are protected by the Department of Conservation are the red-tailed, red-shouldered, broad-winged, carrion and sparrow hawks.

What Hunters Can Do.

Referring to his slogan, Mr.
Prescott pointed out that there are several licensed hunters in New York state. If each of these used his cartridge on vermin each day in the year, omitting Sundays, the result would be 218,400,000 destructive birds and animals killed in a year.

The 150 game protectors of the state last year killed 3,290 of these vermin of the song bird, but the vermin is increasing at such a rate as to threaten the extermination of many of the protected species, according to Mr. Prescott.

Foxes Are Increasing

An official publication of the Department of Conservation says:
"The depredations of foxes are too well known to require much comment. Every sportsman and every farmer knows only too well from his own experience that the fox is one of the most bloodthirsty marauders of all nature. In spite of the fact that they are widely hunted with pounds and beset with traps, and in spite of the present value of their pelt, foxes seem to be on the increase, and only by more strenuous warfare upon them can these great enemies of our game birds be kept in check.

"The tireless hunting instinct of foxes and their insatiable desire to kill are well known. They are not satisfied with supplying the call of food, but, whenever opportunity arises, kill from sheer lust of slaughter."

Destruction By Squirrels

"The worst trait of the red squirrel is his thoroughly proved habit of storing the eggs and young of small birds. One close observer believes each squirrel destroys 200 birds a season.

Dr. Frank M. Chapman of the American Museum of Natural History says there are not less than $5,000,000 cats in the United States and that there are more cats than man. Practically all of these cats are part of their livelihood by hunting. Even cats that are household pets are bound to indulge their natural instinct of bird killing."

RANGE COUNTY HEN
LAYS EGG 3 1/4 INCHES LONG

I. G. Petherbridge, division representative of the Dairymen's League at Middletown, is exhibiting what he believes to be one of the largest hen's eggs ever seen in Orange county. It measures three and a half inches in length and two and a half inches across and has a circumference of more than nine inches.

The egg was laid by a hen in the back of William Dickerson, of Thompson Ridge, who brought the egg to the Dairy League meeting here Thursday night. The shell was cracked in transit to Middletown, disclosing that the egg contained two yolks, enough to make a good meal for any hungry man.

FAMED MUSICIAN SECRETLY WED

Although they have been married for several years, Josef Hofmann (inset), famous pianist, and his second bride, Betty Short (right), guarded the secret until recently. The musician's divorce from the first Mrs. Hofmann became known at the same time. Both affairs were shrouded in secrecy to avoid casting a cloud over the debut of Josefa, Hofmann's daughter by his first marriage. Three-year-old Anton Hofmann (left), son of the present Mrs. Hofmann, is said to be the image of his celebrated father at that age.

land High School started on their trip to Washington Friday evening.

April 8, at 9 o'clock. They took a sleeper on the West Shore line which will take them straight through to Washington, where they were scheduled to arrive at 6 o'clock Saturday morning. They were to take buses which were to convey them to the Hotel Martineau to have breakfast.
At 1 o'clock Saturday they were going on a sight seeing trip around Washington to see Arlington Cemetery, tomb of the unknown soldier, Curtis Lee's mansion, Lincoln's Memorial and Washington's Monument.

This trip takes about four hours.
They were to return to the hotel in time for dinner. A visit to the Congressional Library was suggested for Saturday evening. Easter services were to be attended and it was expected that the President and Mrs.
Coolidge would be seen. Today they will make a tour of public buildings, including the bureau of printing and engraving, Pan-American building, old and new museums and the capitol. Tuesday they lunch early and go to the Washington Virginia terminal where a special car will take them to Mount Vernon and will return on the steamer Charles Mac-Alister up the Potomac river. Wednesday after early breakfast they will go to Union Square and board the train for home. A two-hour stop will be made at Philadelphia, where they will lunch and go on a sight seeing trip. Then they will take the train to New York where a change will be made to the West Shore and will arrive home at Highland at 9:26 p. m. on Wednesday, April 11.

When cooking a cracked egg add a teaspoon of salt to the water.

To clean soiled ribbon, stretch them on a flat surface and scrub

Remove tarnish on brass or copper by applying a mixture of vinegar and salt and washing it off with soap and Place freshly-laundered towels, sheets and pillow cases at the bottom of the pile on the shelves and thus prevent the repeated use of the same articles week after week.

"The secret of crisp, succulent sal-

PLAN SECOND CONTEST FOR RURAL CASTS.

Cornell Offers List of Plays for Choice.

Ithaca, N. Y., April 9.—Plans for the second New York state community dramatics contest are under way although the only definite point fixed so far is the finish mark—Farm and Home Week, February, 1929, at Cornell University, according to an announcement by the state college of agriculture here.

Any bona fide community group in New York state except city "little theatre" groups are eligible for the contest. The contestants will compete for county championship in their counties and the county winners will later compete with the other county winners in their section of the state.
The sectional winners in turn will compete at the state contest.

In the first state contest, which ended with four casts competing at Cornell February 15, 1928, a total of 64 communities participated during the ten months that the contest was in progress. The winner was Redfield Grange of Oswego County.

As in the contest last year, the American Agriculturist is offering a prize of $50 to the winning group and will pay in addition a bonus of $20 to the other casts competing in the finals.

A list of approved plays for this contest has been made up by the department of rural social organization.
This list with a complete outline for the contest may be obtained from the college.

HOW CAPT. G. H. WILKINS WILL FLY OVER POLAR REGION

The map portrays the proposed route of Captain G. H. Wilkins and his party on their flight over the North Pole. They are in search of the unknown continent believed to exist in the Arctic regions. The expedition already has gone from Fairbanks to Port Barrow, and is expected to hop to Spitzbergen over the North Pole route.

Makes Solo Flight

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, April 9.—There was a large attendance at the Easter sunrise service in the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday morning, 62 being present. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. S. P. Tinsie. The topic was "The Living Comrade." Mrs. Tinsie gave a very interesting description of the topic and presented the truth in a very impressive manner. Seventy-four juniors sang beautifully "The Mighty Army of the Young" and the young ladies sang a very appropriate song. The meeting is one long to be remembered on account of the reverence shown. Everyone who attended the service partook of the breakfast provided by members of the Epworth League. The blessing was asked by T. S. Dennison, local preacher.

Hope Temple, No. 30, Pythian Sisters, will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in their rooms in Pythian Hall. This is the birthday anniversary of the temple and every member is in receipt of a little bag in which to place your birthday date. A pot luck dinner will be served at the close of the session.

The Junior League will meet Tuesday afternoon at the close of school in the Methodist Church House. Children will kindly come directly after school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stadt of New York city spent Easter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holliday, of Bowne street.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. G. P. Griffin, on Hamilton street, Wednesday afternoon, April 11, at 2:30 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present at this, the first meeting of the conference year.

The Priscilla Society will meet Thursday afternoon, April 12, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Harry Jump on Broadway. It is earnestly requested that all members be present at this meeting.

Edward Bishop, engineer on the tug Hercules, spent the week end at his home on Broadway.

Thomas Tucker and sons, Bernard Tucker and Martin Tucker of Brooklyn, spent Easter at their home on Broadway.

Mrs. Charles Niece, who has spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Margan at Pontiac, Michigan, has returned to her home on Main street.

The Rev. William H. Rathbun, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, preached a very appropriate Easter service Sunday morning.

The refreshment committee of Luerella Rebekah Lodge will hold a card party at their lodge rooms at 12th Park on Friday evening, April 13, from 8 to 11 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

The Dorcas Society will meet in the Sunday school room Tuesday evening, April 10, at 6:30 o'clock a pot luck supper will be served. After supper the usual business meeting and social hour. A good attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. William Turner of Port Reading, N. J., spent Sunday with Mrs. Turner's father, Silas W. Perrine of Broadway.

A business meeting of the Epworth League Society will be held Tuesday evening, April 10, at the Methodist Church house. A large attendance is desired.

Bus Ride Postponed.
The bus ride scheduled to be held by St. Mary's Children of Mary Society to St. Ann's Hall, Sawkill, for Tuesday evening, April 10, has been postponed until Tuesday, April 17. A special meeting to complete arrangements will be held Friday evening, April 13th, at 8 o'clock in St. Mary's Hall.

Curfew Calls for Quiet
The curfew calls more than the knell of putting day in the Swiss canon of Berne. It rings at eleven o'clock in summer and nine in winter to warn motorists that the householders want to sleep and that heavy trucks, vehicles carrying more than eight passengers and motorcycles should hurry for their garages and remain until 4 a. m.

Balks Bandits After They Dig His Grave

Orense, Spain.—A tale worthy of a Poe was unfolded concerning a country merchant who from a place of concealment saw robbers digging a grave for him.

Francisco Rodriguez Alvarez, the merchant, was on his way to inspect his farm when two masked highwaymen robbed him of 150 pesetas (about $25).

Stopping at an inn for the night, Alvarez told the innkeeper he had a much larger amount in the lining of his hat.

Near midnight he awoke and overheard the highwaymen addressing the innkeeper as "father."

He arranged his bed so as to make it appear occupied, and arming himself with a razor, hid behind the door.

Through the window he could see the two highwaymen digging a grave in the courtyard.

Soon the door creaked, and the innkeeper, cautiously entering the room, plunged his dagger into the pile of bedclothes. Alvarez threw himself upon the innkeeper and overpowered him.

Hastening to a police station, he returned before the grave had been completed, and the men were arrested.

COP DRIVEN MAD BY FEAR OF GANG

"Bravest" Officer Becomes Violently Insane.

Hoboken, N. J.—A few months ago Sergt. William Delaney was known as a policeman who feared nothing. Time and again his courage had been tested.

About that time he came across a gang of silk robbers in the act of holding up the driver of a silk truck. He gave battle without hesitation, shot it out with the gangsters, killed two of them, regained the truck, and made the robbery a sorry fizzle.

For his bravery he received an award of $1,400 from the Silk Association of America, honors from the police department and civic organizations, and much acclaim.

Then he went back to work, apparently the same Sergt. Bill Delaney.

But, gradually, fear began to creep into his thoughts. He heard other officers tell stories of vengeance by gunmen. He read of such things in the paper. He began to express a feeling that vengeance would be meted out to him.

He changed and became nervous. About a week ago he heard that the widow of "Frenchy" Genese, one of the silk robbers he had killed, had come to Hoboken announcing she wanted to see the man who killed her husband.

He went home and doctors said it was nervous collapse.

But rest did not help and the other morning he began babbling incoherently. Finally he became violent, smashing furniture and bric-a-brac.

Physicians pronounced his condition as serious.

A squad of officers and a physician later left for a sanatorium, taking with them Sergt. Bill Delaney, the bravest policeman in Hoboken—gone insane through fear.

Ambassadorial Duties

An ambassador is the personal representative of the ruler or head of the nation from which he is sent and serves as a spokesman for the government of his country in the foreign country in which he is stationed. His duties are largely social and ceremonial.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

Philadelphia—The "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame are going into action together again under the eyes of Knute Rockne. Three of them are to be ushers and the coach is to be a guest when Harry A. Stugliedre, now football mentor at Villanova, marries Miss Mary Agnes McEnery.

Paris—If Peggy Watson of Washington is to be a duchess, as some unverified accounts have it, perhaps there will be an aerial honeymoon. Prince Charles Philippe, Duke de Nemours, has become an aviator. His family says he is planning a trip to Africa for scientific research.

New York—An aerial argosy is to start a tour of this country in June. Two hundred persons will visit 22 cities in 42 days, traveling in trimotor planes. Golf bags will be taken along.

London—Mrs. Henry Ford is pleased that women will be able to vote in Great Britain on reaching the age of 21. "Women," she said, "have done a great deal of good in public affairs at home, and I am sure they will do more good as they become more active."

Constantinople—A Turkish society girl is to guide J. P. Morgan and party on sightseeing trips to the mosques and bazaars. The arrangement was made by Ambassador Grew to prevent bother with impetuous professional guides. Mr. Morgan's yacht is in the Golden Horn.

New York—Uncle Sam is introducing art into the Olympic games. An exhibit of painting, sculpture and architecture dealing with sport is to be shipped to Amsterdam this week. Later it will be shown in this country.

Moscow—Alexander Bogdanoff may be regarded as a martyr to science. Director of the State Scientific Institute for Blood Transfusion, he died from a transfusion experiment he made on himself.

New York—If Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City Bank, ever loses his job, he should worry. "I could put on overalls and do a pretty creditable job as an electrician," he said. He was an executive for the Western Electric before coming to Wall Street.

Washington—Science is to study the world's longest battery of craters in an effort to find means of forecasting earthquakes. An expedition of the National Geographic Society is bound for Squaw Harbor, Alaska, to give attention to at least 45 active volcanoes in a chain.

New York—If Diogenes were here and succumbed to the lure of "Play Ball" he could put out his lantern at the Yankee Stadium. A girl cashier in a hotel worried and worried over her cash being $90 short. Then an affable young man came along and said he got $90 too much when a check was cashed for him. He was Mark Keonig, Yanks' shortstop.
